CALL TO CONFESSION AND PRAYER OF CONFESSION

All Holy and loving God, you invite us to stand on holy ground, just as you invited Moses, but we trample your earth with our greed. We walk roughshod over the vulnerable, treading carefully only when our comfort is at risk. We confess that we treat your sacred gifts as ordinary, and we forget that every person we meet was made in your image. Forgive our hurried and selfish ways. Remove the heavy sandals of our pride, our prejudice, and our fear. Open our hearts to your transforming fire, that even in the ordinary, we might glimpse your holy presence and turn towards you.

A moment of silence for personal reflection and confession.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

FIRST LESSON Romans 12:9-18

(New Testament pg. 162 in pew Bible)

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil;
hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor. Do not lag in zeal; be ardent in spirit; serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope; be patient in affliction; persevere in prayer.
Contribute to the needs of the saints;
pursue hospitality to strangers.
Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice; weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be arrogant, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all.

(Old Testament pg. 50 in pew Bible)

Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led his flock beyond the wilderness and came to Mount Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush; he looked, and the bush was blazing, yet it was not consumed. Then Moses said, "I must turn aside and look at this great sight and see why the bush is not burned up." When the Lord saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, "Moses, Moses!" And he said, "Here I am." Then he said, "Come no closer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground." He said further, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Then the Lord said, "I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings, and I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land to a good and spacious land, to a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. The cry of the Israelites has now come to me; I have also seen how the Egyptians oppress them. Now go, I am sending you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt." But Moses said to God, "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?" He said, "I will be with you, and this shall be the sign for you that it is I who sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall serve God on this mountain." But Moses said to God, "If I come to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your ancestors has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' what shall I say to them?" God said to Moses, "I am who I am." He said further, "Thus you shall say to the Israelites, 'I am has sent me to you.'"

God also said to Moses, "Thus you shall say to the Israelites, 'The Lord, the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you': This is my name forever, and this my title for all generations.

One The Word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

John Willingham

All We trust in God, whom Jesus called Abba, Father. In sovereign love God created the world good and makes everyone equally in God's image, to live as one community. In everlasting love, the God of Abraham and Sarah chose a covenant people to bless all families of the earth. Hearing their cry, God delivered the children of Israel from the house of bondage. Loving us still, God makes us heirs with Christ of the covenant. Like a mother who will not forsake her nursing child, like a father who runs to welcome the prodigal home, God is faithful still.

- from A Brief Statement of Faith

PASTORAL PRAYER AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

All Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

INVITATION TO DISCIPLESHIP

Please fill in the Friendship Pad at the end of your pew; pass it down your row and back again.

Staff Updates

There have been a few changes among our staff this summer. We said goodbye to Liz Ellis earlier this summer and are grateful for all she contributed in her role as Director of Engagement. We're happy to share that Jennifer McArthur has stepped into that role, with Kathy La now serving as Administrative Coordinator for Adult Education and Mission.

We also welcomed Jade Lester to the Facilities Team last month. Jade has already been a wonderful addition to the team!

We'll sadly say goodbye to Parish Nurse Colleen Catania on Monday, August 31. We're grateful for the care and support Colleen has offered our congregation over the past year and wish her all the best.

We'll soon be posting the opening for a Parish Nurse. If you know someone who might be a good fit (who is not a BMPC member), please reach out to MichellePringle@bmpc.org
